

Prayers from Inmates brought to the conference
by the prison chaplains

God, forgive me for everything I did.
Help me become a better person.
Amen

Jesus, you are all I have left. Please don't leave me!

My life is hard, but I pray for prisoners in other parts of the world. I have food, water, my own bed and can talk to my children almost every day.
God, please help them.
Amen

God, I don't have any children but I know how difficult it is for those who do. Please help every family in the world, where one is in prison. Children or parents, it is really difficult for them God. Let them know that you love them.
Amen

Jesus, please help every inmate who when we cry in our beds.
We try to look cool, but you know we are not cool. We are afraid and alone. It is good to know that you are there for us.
Amen

Jesus, you are the only one I can trust.
Please don't let me down!

Lord, you are the king of both the living and the dead. The free and us in prison. Help us all to become people that makes you proud. Because even the free can disappoint you God.

Jesus, I pray that all prisoners in the world get's to meet you and feel your love. Without your love, we can't live!
In Jesus name. Amen

Jesus, you saw everybody, you visited everybody and ate with everybody. You didn't care if the rest of the world didn't want to. Please see us, visit us and eat with us. You are welcome to us.

God, I pray for the children who are in prison. They need their parents, they need to feel safe. Let them know that you love them and are ready to give them a chance to be forgiven. No matter what they have done.
Amen

In a world filled with darkness, don't forget that Jesus is the light. In a world filled with lies, don't forget that Jesus is the truth.

God is great, God is forgiving, Almighty and understanding. There is a pathway from my heart, that leads to my soul. When I sit in tranquillity and listen I hear your voice, faith is invigorating, hope is liberating, love is the answer. Bless the Lord, Amen

(From Sweden with love, blessings and prosperity)

God, I ask for forgiveness, and I am truly sorry for what I have done and I have a very bad conscience and a deep remorse towards the people I have hurt.
Now I pray, from all my heart, to help me with this. The grief that I carry, but at the same time I ask that you help me to get my sentence fixed- termed in 2026. I hope that year will be the best of my life. I wish to meet my relatives.
Amen

God, I have lost my way of life. I have been sinning day and night, I ask you to forgive me and not turn your face against me.
I am like I child that has lost it's parents, that is why I seek my way to you my maker. Have mercy upon me and put me back on the track that leads me to you. All this I pray in the name of the Lord.
Amen

God, help the ones who really need it. Bless the ones who suffer under the bombs. Help the one in Ukraine in Gaza, give them a chance. Awake the world, let the blinds see what's happening under their eyes.

Oh my Lord, please give Jesper a good evening.

Good, give me serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can and the wisdom to know the difference. In this I live one day at the time and accept setbacks on the road to peace. And take the world as it is, not as I would like it to be. Trusting that you get the right things out of everything and that you do not abandon me. Your will be done.
Amen

I pray for the good.
I pray for an older man that I meet at the M.R.C waiting on prostate results.

That I get exonerated.

Pray for all the families at the moment.

Reclassified to a new prison to a unit I'll be able to grow and be happy in.

I pray for all of us to find peace, love in God and to ourselves and our loved ones. That we may live long lives with purpose. So many do good onto ourselves and all around us. In the name of God.

I now pray for my kids contact.

I want to pray that persons in other prisons shall have food on their table every day, be treated in a fair way and that they shall have families visiting them. And that when freedom comes, they have learnt from their mistakes and never has to go back to prison. I want to pray that they shall find faith and that God always is with them.

Amen

Dear God. Can you bless Eliot and help him to get through the loneliness that waits him. And that he will be brought back to a normal life.

Pray for the youth in Ghana to live for Christ and focus on him in life.

The senior correctional centre keep increases in number and we need to pray for the youth. They are our future leaders; they cannot end up in prisons.

Dear God

Give gent (my son of 5 years) the light and courage to overcome his troubles and find his path in life. Help my autistic son of 9 (Enea), find peace, love and happiness.

Give to my heroic wife (Elona), good health, strength and patience to cope with the tough task of taking care of them.

Please protect my family while I am away.
Faith and Hope on Your Love Jesus, Amen.

I pray to end child hunger in the world.

Beloved God, help me to take me further in life, where I want to be. Now I am in a place where I don't want to be. Take care of my family until I can meet them.

Mom loves you more than anything!

Dear God, bless inmates all over the world. Give them good terms – and cake, as we sometimes get here in Nyborg...

Dear God, can you help my family please.

Heavenly father, we pray for all convicts, to keep up their good spirits. Give them strength to develop and grow as human beings. Help them turn negative to positive. Father, please help to communicate good vibrations from Denmark to Thailand.

More "lagkage" to inmates and a better handling of the criminal cases.

To all inmates who are struggling in isolation or the infirmary, we pray for you. Amen.

Please Pray People! :

Somali woman 33 years, 4,5 years in prison. I have two boys and two girls. The girl 14 has problems, please pray for her. And pray that the rest of my life will be stable with God and that God will help me and forgive me. I don't want to have a mind of a slave.

Pray for each soul that's being mistreated for each soul not being heard, for each soul crying at night with none to care for them.

Pray for more humanity in the criminal care systems.

Dear God. Thank you for us getting food every day. Can you please help, so everybody gets food to eat. Can you heal my back, so that I don't have to be in pain all the time. Amen.

God, now it's just us again. Even in our darkest days I am thankful for the lights you send. I'm thankful for the food, and the roof over my head. I pray for all the people sitting in a cell days on end. I thank you for this lesson that I might not yet understand.

I pray for all the children, the women and the men that's written in your hand. Thank you.

Thank you for your company even when I fell alone in my head. I pray that everyone will find you and embrace your love. In the Father, the son and the holy spirit's name. Amen.

God, forgive me for my sins.

I have made a lot wrong, but today I want to change. Free me from all the bad in my heart, and in my surroundings. Open my eyes and show me the right way in life. I pray for a new life, filled with love and freedom. So that, when I get out, I never have to go back.

Today I am paying the price for my mistakes, with my freedom. That is why I pray for my, my brothers and sisters freedom.

Only you can judge us.

Amen.

From Sweden to Brazil, and all the Portuguese speaking countries.

May God bless them. Amen

Heavenly God, please by your mercy. Save the people of Gaza and stop the unfairly war by your power.

I want to say a prayer for me and my family, my ex-wife, our children and grandchildren and their families and siblings.

That it shall be sorted out for all of them, in a good and positive way. And that all the adversities shall end. So that my son can stay in contact with his son, so they can meet and build a new relation.

That my oldest grandchild can get in contact with his father and that we can be free from our addictions, criminality and other stupidities.

That we all get to get in contact with each other; parents, children, grandchildren, cousins, and us, the grown-ups. So that we can meet, hang out and get a better life together.

I pray that the rest of my sentence, I will get better terms so that I can stay in call my son. Amen

God, please help me to set aside everything I think I know about myself, about others, about my recovery and about you God. So that I may have an open mind and new experiences.

God, please help me see the truth. (Woman 30 years, 3,6 years)

Please, Pakistani prisoners keep us in your prayers. They need your support.

Pray for my family who has been deported and for me to be set free. (18 years, looking on 8 years in prison and deportation.)

I pray for the health of my mother, cousins and aunt that always has been in my life, supported me and thought for me. Without them I wouldn't have made this difficult time, that I am going through right now.

I want to meet them again and give back everything that they have done for me. Things I took for granted before I got in here in prison, but now I have realized how much they love me and that I love them.

Hey, I am sitting in a prison. I have more than one year left in prison. Please pray.

I will just say thanks for your support. It means a lot to me and keeps up the good work you are doing. Greetings.

And God said let there be light, and there was light. But also darkness. As people that has lived in darkness we know the true worth of the light. And I want to pray that we all will find our way back to the light.

(19 years old, in custody for 1 year and 2 months.) I pray that all the inmates have food and good workers that work there.

I want to pray for my sons, that it shall turn out well for them.

That they shall not be bullied because of why I am here and convicted.

That the Holy Spirit lifts them and gives them the hope and love they can get and deserves.

That our God knows my gratitude for how nice and loveable they are.

That I feel very proud of them. I also want to thank God for the nice persons in the visiting group.

That he blesses and watches over them and that the Holy Spirit shall guide me and my lawyer, so that I can appeal and get to get out to my nice sons.

Thank you father for all your love.

God, forgive me my sins. I have already committed so many mistakes. Today I want to get everything of my chest. Open my eyes and show me the right path.

It's hard to live a new life, filled with love and freedom. When I leave this place, I never want to go back. I am now paying the price for my mistakes with my freedom. I pray for my freedom, my brothers and sisters that we can be happy.

Amen

I pray for happiness. May the world be peaceful! May every family be safe! May you be happy and health.

Thank you for all the help from my lawyer. And for my family, they are my life.

God, I want everybody that goes to the conference will be happy and get to be surprised. Let it be in harmony with you.

I pray for my family, my friends, for every inmate and all the chaplains.
Amen

God, I come to you and ask for blessings for the special journey for all the chaplains.

For the prisoners in Congo.

When a tragedy occurs, that is not only what happens. It is what happened, but I would like it to be less painful.

I pray for my family, for my sick grandfather and for my beloved children.

Amen

For prisoners in Congo, so they can be freed without paying a fine. No food, malnutrition, lots of illness and tuberculosis.

May God remember them.

Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom comes. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, The power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

Muslim prayers;

Allah, I have done wrong against myself and my sins hasn't stopped. Only you can help and please turn back to me, because you are the most gracious. There is no other God.

Allah, the Lord of the world. Grant me the highest place in Paradise.

Allah, don't leave any sin unforgiven, no troubles without easing the burden, no debt unpaid and no purpose for this life or the one to come, without filling it.

Allah, I ask for your forgiveness, hope for your mercy and ask for your guidance and support, you the Lord of the world.

God, free me from worries open up my chest and help me to free my tied tongue so I understand what I am saying.

God, I have turned my face to you. Give me patience in difficulties and trials. I seek shelter in you from poverty and misfortunes.

God, you are our only refuge, praise be to you.

There is no other God but you.

To the one that have created sorrow and grief.

To God that gave me love and thought me to be strong.

I want God to protect my family, and I want God to save all children of the world.

For my people, for my country Afghanistan and those in Iran.

And all unprotected children in Gaza and Yemen.

I want God to be patient with all inmates, including me who are innocent but yet I am here.
