- What is inspirational in work among victims and offenders?
- How may people working in law and order embrace tensions?

JUSTICE REFLECTIONS
explores such hopes and fears.

It is an ecumenical collection of theological papers incorporating ethical, pastoral and restorative themes in the domain of justice.

It aims to support everyone around the world who works alongside offenders.

Justice Reflections has been put together in the Diocese of Lincoln.
It is endorsed by Lincoln School of Theology
Lincolnshire Law Society,
Lincolnshire Probation Board and Lincoln Inter-Faith Group.
It has been printed by prisoners at Leyhill Prison in Gloucestershire

is published termly for

The Worldwide International Prison Chaplains' Association (IPCA)

in conjunction with

The International Commission for Catholic Prison Pastoral Care (ICPPPC)

and Prison Fellowship International (PFI).

Message from the Past President of IPCA

“When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, and my scrolls, especially the parchments” 2 Timothy 4:13.

Through the ages, every visionary mission has been sustained with both cloaks for the body and parchments for the mind. Working with prisoners and their families is truly a missionary enterprise requiring vision. To become acquainted with prisons is to discover the many faces of evil and the power of the Good News of hope and victory. Such a vision must be nurtured, challenged and enlightened.

It is for the prison chaplains of the world, men and women of courage and indomitable spirit, that the IPCA Worldwide Steering Committee decided in July 2001, to ask The Reverend Canon Alan Duce and prison chaplaincy volunteers in Lincoln, UK, to launch Justice Reflections, a Christian reflection on matters of justice.

We value your interest in Justice Reflections. Please pass it on, so it may reach around the world. It is IPCA's humble contribution in ‘scrolls and parchments’ to the nurturing and encouraging of prison chaplains and those involved in justice issues and pastoral care everywhere.

Together in God's service

The International Commission for Catholic Prison Pastoral Care is a worldwide association in the Catholic Church. Its roots were established in 1950 at a congress in Rome convoked by the then Secretary of State at the Vatican, later Pope Paul VI. ICCPPC now has clerical and lay representatives in more than a hundred countries encouraging awareness of the importance of prison pastoral care. It is an NGO collaborating with international organisations with similar aims in defending human rights.

Prison Fellowship International is the global association of national Prison Fellowship organisations. These organisations are national Christian ministries responding to the needs of prisoners, ex-prisoners, victims and those affected by crime. All national PF organisations work through Christian communities mobilising ministry to prisoners, ex-prisoners, victims and their families as well as advancing the principles of restorative justice.

The International Prison Chaplains' Association is a network of prison chaplains committed to the spiritual and social care of people in conflict with the law. Founded in 1985 in Bossey, Switzerland, it seeks to encourage and equip chaplains around the world. It is interested in human rights, criminal justice issues and indigenous development as well as in training and support through conferences and publications. The IPCA logo depicts prison bars broken by the cross of reconciliation and intersected by the rays of God's spirit comforting the world.
